

AMBER NELSON

Author | Speaker | Trainer | Communications Expert

THE BUSINESS OF LANGUAGE AND THE LANGUAGE OF BUSINESS.

A refreshing and accessible keynote speaker, Amber delivers insightful perspectives on communication and communicators that has audiences laughing and thinking about the power and potential of words. With over 20 years of experience, Amber has developed an expert ability to connect language to leadership, professional effectiveness and business challenges. In addition to speaking Amber trains individuals and work groups, facilitates team work sessions and moderates panels. Amber publishes The Lingo-ist, a weekly blog that advises followers across the country on all facets of effective communications. Her book, Effective Communications for Women in Business launched in summer 2014, and will be followed by Talk to Me: 11 Ways to Make Your Conversations Richer, Deeper and More Meaningful.

CHOOSE FROM THREE POWERFUL KEYNOTES, ALL CUSTOMIZED FOR YOUR AUDIENCE AND INDUSTRY:

WITH THE RIGHT WORDS YOU CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

The value of great communication can't be overstated. From giants of industry to children's fairy tales, the right words make all the difference. Touching on biology, history and pragmatic skills, this keynote is equal parts inspiration and action.

THE LANGUAGE OF LEADERSHIP

Leadership shows up in our language, our choices and our relationships. When we each take responsibility as leaders in our individual worlds, we are forming the tributaries of leadership transformation that eventually flow into compelling culture change.

TEN COMMUNICATION COMMANDMENTS FOR WOMEN IN BUSINESS

Too often, women in the workplace unconsciously undermine their own interests with language that masks their abilities, goals and ambitions. Using a hearty dose of humor this keynote illustrates common communication faux pas that hold women back and delivers practical solutions.

All keynote presentations are also available as customized workshops that run between 90 minutes and two days.
