

AMBER NELSON

Language and Leadership Expert

THE LANGUAGE OF BUSINESS. THE BUSINESS OF LANGUAGE.

A refreshing and engaging trainer and speaker, Amber delivers insightful perspectives on language and leadership that provoke laughter and learning about the power and potential of words. With more than 20 years of experience working with individuals and organizations, she has an expert ability to connect words to personal power and effective leadership.

Amber’s keynotes and trainings are founded on real world situations with solutions that are accessible and actionable. She speaks and trains at conferences, corporate events, employee resource group meetings, professional organization gatherings, and nonprofits across the country. Amber frequently coaches and consults with executives and work groups on language and leadership.

CHOOSE FROM THREE POWERFUL TOPICS, ALL CUSTOMIZED FOR YOUR AUDIENCE AND INDUSTRY.

USING YOUR WORDS TO INCREASE YOUR WORTH

This interactive, introspective program teaches participants how to use their words to increase their worth at work and in the world. Attendees identify their own authentic language and the abilities, interests, and goals most valuable to their career growth. Our positive techniques help them speak from a place of strength with confidence in any situation.

THE LANGUAGE OF LEADERSHIP

Participants learn how language, choices, and relationships contribute to leadership as an action, not a position. Together, they assess personal leadership styles, decode the leadership landscape of their organizations, and devise action plans for developing and implementing their own authentic language of leadership to pursue their professional best.

MEN, WOMEN, AND WORDS: BRIDGING THE GENDER COMMUNICATION GAP

Too often it can seem like men and women speak different languages at work and in the world. This fun, high-energy offering focuses on improving mutual understanding by deconstructing stereotypes, increasing personal awareness, and delivering tips, tools, and strategies for more effectively communicating with colleagues to accelerate personal leadership.

All presentations are available as customized workshops.
